None.

6. COMMUNICATIONS FROM STAFF

The Committee members asked about the Economic Development Program and the new Library Manager. Manager Singer said that Ben Bryant was promoted from a Management Analyst to the new Economic Development Manager and Jerianne Thompson was promoted from Public Services Supervisor in the Library to the Library Manager.

7. ANNOUNCEMENTS/TTAC COMMUNICATIONS

Chair Kelly shared an update regarding the Health Fair at Living Savior Church. She hopes they will continue this and get more and more participation. The Police Department and Tualatin Valley Fire & Rescue were both represented. OHSU staff were doing demonstrations and giving sample of healthy foods and pharmacy students were checking prescriptions. They had health screenings, a yoga class, and many vendors including the Pohl Center and the Meals on Wheels People. There were about 130 attendees. She said she hopes this continues and they consider partnering with Tualatin Tomorrow.

Chair Kelly also provided an update on the Metro Public Engagement Review Committee (PERC) on which she serves as a member. She said Metro has a new format for a quarterly periodical, and they are also about to launch a new website. She said Metro is doing a survey of their committees for demographics which she recently completed.

Committee Member Bartholomew shared information about Mask and Mirror's new production. Committee Member McClure said they had a great choral performance at the Heritage Center.

Committee Member Casey reported that the Lions Club held their annual Easter Egg Hunt last month, and the weather was good and the kids had fun. This was the 37th Annual.

Committee Member Emami asked if the City had received any complaints from Hot Seat regarding parking enforcement in the Core Area Parking Lots. Manager Singer said she was unaware of any complaints.

Councilor Bubenik said medical marijuana facilities have been deferred until May of next year. He said the Rayborn property by Jurgens Park will be annexed. He shared an update on the SW Corridor Project and said the Citizen Involvement Organizations are hosting a forum on May 22nd.
