

TUALATIN PUBLIC LIBRARY INTERNET USE POLICY

Purpose

The Tualatin Public Library exists to serve the community by providing materials and services to help residents of all ages and cultural backgrounds with free access to books and non-book materials.

Internet Use Policy

To use the Internet, the resource user must read and sign or accept the electronic format of the "Internet Use Policy". The juvenile/youth forms will be kept on file. The patron also agrees to comply with Tualatin Municipal Code Chapter 5-1, Library Rules of Conduct.

It is the Tualatin Public Library's "Use Policy" that:

- Patrons are asked to respect the rights and sensitivities of others.
- Users may not display any picture or image of a person or a portion of a human body that depicts nudity, sexual conduct or other image prohibited by ORS 167.080.
- Library staff may immediately end an Internet session if material which is inappropriate to a library setting is displayed.
- Patrons will refrain from violating copyright laws.
- Patrons under the age of 18 years will need to have a parent or legal guardian co-sign a hardcopy of the "Internet Use Policy" agreement in order to use an unfiltered system.
- Filtering is provided on the terminals in the Children's and Young Adult Sections. This software limits access to questionable Internet pages but is not guaranteed.

Internet Functions provided: Web browsers, interactive software to facilitate access, filtering software for minors, printing for per page fee.

Internet Services not provided: Internet relay chat, downloads to disks.

The Library is not responsible for materials on the Internet, nor the protection, of Internet users from inaccurate or offensive information. Individuals entering personal information such as credit card or banking information, home addresses, or telephone numbers do so at their own risk.

I understand that it is my responsibility to follow the "Internet Use Policy". I agree to abide by the Tualatin Public Library Internet Use Policy.
