¡Viva Tualatin! Inaugural Participatory Art Project

Call for Artists

¡Viva Tualatin! – A Celebration of Arts and Culture, is the City of Tualatin’s newest special event designed to highlight the artistic and cultural contributions of Tualatin’s diverse and vibrant community. This event will be held on Saturday, September 14 from 1:00-9:00pm and feature music and dance performances, arts activities, community businesses, art vendor booths, food, and drinks.

The purpose of the ¡Viva Tualatin! Participatory Art Project is to provide a temporary installation of an aesthetically interesting event gateway feature that incorporates community participation and cultural themes. The mediums used must be able to withstand outdoor elements, but need not be permanent in nature. This art project will connect people of all ages, races, abilities, and backgrounds to each other and the City, through a vibrant and engaging art installation.

Project Scope

The City of Tualatin seeks work that is immersive and participatory in nature, to be installed at the ¡Viva Tualatin! event. Selected work(s) should reflect the City’s dynamic and distinctive elements and give the viewer insight into the unique character, cultures and quality of the community. Artistic excellence combined with an eye for capturing and celebrating the cultural, social, built and natural aspects of the community, as well as an opportunity for the community to participate in the creation or experience of the art are essential goals of the ¡Viva Tualatin! Participatory Art Project.

Up to $2,500 is available for project(s) implementation, including materials. One project may be awarded the full amount, or multiple projects may be awarded at lower amounts.

Eligibility

Open to all artists in the Greater Pacific Northwest. Artists of diverse backgrounds and students that live in Washington and Clackamas Counties are encouraged to apply.

Tualatin Community Park – Event Area

Background Information

The City of Tualatin is located on the Tualatin River, 12 miles south of Portland, in both Washington and Clackamas Counties. Once predominately agricultural, today the City is a hub of community activity and a bustling local economy. Additionally, the City has over 200 acres of parks, natural areas and recreation resources.

Currently, the City of Tualatin has a population of 26,840, with approximately 30% of the population between the ages of 25 to 44. The City includes a significant Hispanic/Latino community, now about 20 percent of the total population, and a growing Asian and Pacific Islander community.

The ¡Viva Tualatin! Event will be held in Tualatin Community Park, a 27 acre park adjacent to the Tualatin River. The goal of ¡Viva Tualatin! – A Celebration of Arts and Culture is to highlight the many contributions of Tualatin’s diverse community with a vibrant and engaging event that is free to the public. This goal is in alignment with the Tualatin City Council’s 2030 vision of an inclusive community that promotes access, diversity, and equity in creating a high quality of life for everyone.

It is the policy of the City of Tualatin that no person shall be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination in, any City program, service or activity on the grounds of race, religion, color, national origin, English proficiency, sex, age, disability, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity or source of income.

Application Procedure

For All Submittals:

Include the following with your submission:

- A professional resume.
- Artist statement of no more than 100 words (may be included in resume).
- A conceptual project proposal including a brief description of the proposed work and how it addresses the goals of the ¡Viva Tualatin! Participatory Art Project. There is not a limit to the number of conceptual project proposals artists may submit.
- Artist Portfolio - Digital images (up to 10 total) of past work submitted on USB thumb drive and labeled with artist’s last name.
- Images must be saved in JPG format in highest or maximum quality (or at 300 dpi).
- Include a separate page with a list of the provided images that includes the title and description of each work, dimensions, materials used, year created and price of works.
- Include a detailed proposed project budget that includes materials, transportation costs, artist stipend, and any technical requirements.

- Include a project timeline that outlines the required time for project completion, installation, and removal.
- Artists are encouraged to visit the event site prior to project submittal. Viva Tualatin will be held in Tualatin Community Park, located at 8515 SW Tualatin Rd., Tualatin OR 97062. The event area includes a large, grassy field surrounded by towering Douglas-Fir trees, as well as a parking lot and basketball court that will be closed off for booths and activities.

Selection Committee

The Selection Committee will choose the work meeting the requirements and that best convey the spirit of the City and its people in a creative, culturally relevant manner. The Tualatin Arts Advisory Committee members and the Tualatin Diversity Taskforce will comprise the Selection Committee.

Selection Criteria

- Artwork exhibits the highest degree of quality and excellence
- Artwork is reflective of the Tualatin's diverse community
- Artwork has the ability to provide community engagement or participation, regardless of age, primary language spoken, physical ability or other factors.
- Artwork is created for the purposes of a temporary visual arts installation, with consideration of the ability to preserve some component(s) of the work for permanent record.
- Proposal will include proposed life cycle of the work, including duration of installation and removal.
- Selected works must meet the safety requirements and be able to withstand the effects of weather and public use/interaction for the duration of the event, and may be displayed on City property for a pre-determined period of time.
- Artist must remain on-site during the duration of the event (Saturday, September 14th, 1:00pm-9:00pm) for public questions and engagement. Artist must also be available for any necessary installation and removal of work(s).

Additional Information

- The Tualatin Arts Advisory Committee is not required to purchase work from submissions and reserves the right to commission or purchase works from artists who do not submit.
- There is no limit on the number of works purchased.
- Selected work becomes the property of the City of Tualatin.
- A City of Tualatin copyright agreement will be provided with artist contract.
