D. NEW BUSINESS

1. TAAC Arts Agency Grants

Julie Ludemann, staff, discussed the Arts Agency Grant that funds up to $1000 annually for local arts organizations. TAAC members suggested that the grant could be for current or future expenditures, or could help mitigate loss that arts organizations experienced due to the COVID-19 pandemic. TAAC members suggested including an application question regarding outreach to diverse communities or providing equitable programs. Julie will update application based on TAAC suggestions and provide updated application information at the next meeting.

2. Future Projects

TAAC has previously identified three main projects for future development – storm drain art, signal box wraps, and a street mural. The street mural location has been identified as the area near the commons lake and plaza, and work is anticipated to begin early fall 2021 or spring 2022. The committee discussed the option of expanding the signal box program. The committee also discussed the possibility of an interactive map showing Tualatin's public art. Julie Ludemann will begin research on the implementation of a signal box program and creation of an interactive map using the City's available GIS technology.
