QUALITY OF LIFE

DOWNTOWN TUALATIN

Downtown Tualatin is not only the center for local commerce and businesses, it also functions as the central meeting place and the community living room. Thus, it is known locally as the Tualatin Commons. The central aspect of the Tualatin Commons is a lake and public plaza. Surrounding the public gathering space is a mix of high-quality residential dwellings, retail, and professional service employment opportunities.

SHOPPING

Tualatin is home to one of the premier destination shopping centers in Oregon. Bridgeport Village is an upscale life-style shopping center that includes over 90 retail stores and restaurants.

SCHOOLS

The public school system in Tualatin is part of the Tigard-Tualatin School District. District wide, student achievement in math, science, and reading consistently outpaces the rest of the State of Oregon. In 2011, the Center for American Progress concluded that the Tigard-Tualatin School District had one of the highest returns on educational investment statewide.

PARKS

There are over 200 acres of well-maintained community parks, trails, and natural areas within the City of Tualatin. Park amenities include sports complexes, shelters, boat docks along the Tualatin River, and vast areas of open space.

RECREATION

The City of Tualatin and other community groups organize regular recreational opportunities that range from canoe rentals and trips to world class festivals. In 2009, the Giant Pumpkin Regatta on the Lake at the Commons was named the best festival in Oregon. Tualatin is also the home of the nation's oldest Crawfish Festival west of the Mississippi River. In addition to these signature festivals, numerous other events are held each year including weekly summer concerts and a local farmers market.
