Policies for Use of the Community Room

The primary purpose of the facility is to provide space for Library-sponsored programs and events and other official City of Tualatin activities. When not otherwise scheduled, the room will be available on equal terms, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of individuals or groups requesting use, so long as the individuals or groups abide by the rules governing use of the room.

Use of the Community Room does not constitute or imply the Tualatin Public Library's or City of Tualatin's endorsement or approval of a user's event or activities.

All meetings and programs held by Class 3 and Class 4 groups must be free and open to the general public.

Soliciting for, or conducting business is not allowed. No admission fees may be charged or solicited. No donations of money or other property may be solicited. No promotions or sales of services, products, merchandise, materials, or other items are allowed. Exceptions are made for Library partner organizations.

Nothing in this policy shall be construed to prohibit any act protected under the circumstances by the federal or state constitution.

All activities occurring within the Library Community Room must comply with these rules and with the Library Rules. The Library Director shall have final authority regarding use of the Community Room. The Library reserves the right to refuse or revoke a reservation if the program or gathering is disruptive to the Library's normal course of business, is in violation of the adopted Library Rules, or is in violation of this room use policy. Any group asked to leave during an event because of violations of the rules forfeits the rental fee.

The following multimedia equipment is available for public use: ceiling-mounted projector and projector screen.

The Community Room has 19 tables and 75 chairs, maximum capacity is 147. Chair and table set-up and take-down is the responsibility of the renters. Posters, decorations, or other wall hangings may only be attached to the tack boards.

Cleaning/Security Deposit

A cleaning/security deposit is not required. Clean-up includes wiping table surfaces, removing debris from floors, and placing garbage in appropriate containers. The Service Counter may be used and must be cleaned by the renter.

Any group or individual renting the Library Community Room and found to have caused damage, neglected to leave the room in a clean condition, or violated any Library rule, will be assessed the direct costs to replace, repair, and/or clean damaged or dirty equipment and/or facilities and may be denied a future facility reservation, up to one year.

The Library Director may require comprehensive general liability insurance covering personal injury and property damage, naming the City of Tualatin, its officers, agents, and employees as additional insureds, when it is determined to be warranted, given the nature of the activity, size of the group, and/or the City's previous experience with a particular group.

Food and Drink / Beverage

Refreshments must be prepared in advance. The room is not designed for cooking or preparation of food.

No alcohol use allowed, unless event is City-sponsored or co-sponsored.

Cancellations

A full refund will be given when the Library Director has cancelled a reservation and a reschedule date cannot be accommodated. When a reserving group cancels or reschedules a reservation fourteen (14) days or more before a rental date, the full rental fee will be refunded, less a handling fee. The handling fee for cancellations is $10.

When a reserving group cancels or reschedules a reservation less than fourteen (14) days before a rental date, no refund of the rental fee is given, unless the facility is re-rented. If the facility is re-rented, the full rental fee, less a $10 handling fee, will be refunded.

This policy is approved by Tualatin Library Advisory Committee, December 2022.
