WHY PLAY MATTERS: PROMOTING HEALTH AND CREATIVITY FOR KIDS AND ADULTS

Ages 16+

"Grow up and stop playing." Most of us have heard this admonishment in some form as we moved from youth to adulthood. But is it good advice? Research shows that play and physical activity can have positive effects on children's health, well-being, and education; they also boost health and creativity in adults. What is the value of play?

This is the focus of "Why Play Matters: Promoting Health and Creativity for Kids and Adults," a free conversation with play activists Jonathan Blasher and Tara Doherty. This program is hosted by the Tualatin Public Library and sponsored by Oregon Humanities. Please note: this session will include interactive play for all levels of ability.

NEED A PLACE FOR YOUR GATHERING?

The Tualatin Heritage Center is a beautifully restored and repurposed 1926 church located near the banks of Sweek Pond. The Center offers a variety of interesting programs for all ages. Come learn about our city's rich and colorful history and see displays that include the Tualatin Mastodon tusk and molars. Operated in partnership with the City of Tualatin, the Heritage Center is home of the Tualatin Historical Society. The Heritage Center and patio are available for rental. Book meetings, parties, memorial services, weddings and receptions, celebrations, and more! For information, call 503.885.1926.

HISTORY OF TUALATIN'S PARKS

Paul Hennon, Tualatin's Community Service Director, has spent years in various roles in the funding, design, development and construction of many Tualatin parks. He will speak about this process and how we achieved the beautiful park system we have today. Program sponsored by the Tualatin Historical Society.

TUALATIN RIVER GREENWAY TRAIL NOW OPEN!

Want a free Tualatin River Greenway Trail bandana? Take a picture of your favorite thing about the Tualatin River Greenway, then come to the Tualatin Public Library to pick up your free commemorative bandana!

Simply email the photo to us at librarymail@ci.tualatin.or.us, or post your photo to Facebook or Instagram with the tag #tualatinrivergreenway.

By submitting a photo, you consent to the City of Tualatin's future use and publication of your photo. Offer good while supplies last.

ENJOY THE PARK ON LEASH

For the enjoyment of all users and protection of our parks and facilities, the City of Tualatin would like to remind park users that all dogs must be on a leash (no longer than six feet) at all times in all City parks and greenways.

Dogs can be a wonderful source of enjoyment for everyone when they are managed in a responsible manner. The City wants to ensure that dogs do not spoil the enjoyment or safety of other park users. If your dog needs a place to run free, visit the off-leash dog park located in the north end of Tualatin Community Park. It's a great place to meet other dogs and their people!

OUTDOOR CITY SPACES ARE SMOKE & TOBACCO FREE BEGINNING MAY 31

Tualatin City Council has adopted a policy for outdoor smoke and tobacco free City spaces. Use of tobacco (smoke and chew) and vaping/e-cigarettes will be prohibited on all City-owned or managed properties, including parks, trails, the Tualatin Commons, core-area parking lots, the Tualatin Library plaza and sidewalks and landscaped areas adjacent to City property. The policy takes effect May 31, 2016.

Tualatin promotes health and fresh air for all. If you would like to quit using tobacco, there are resources for you! One of the best resources available is the Oregon Tobacco Quit Line. This is a FREE program that helps you create an easy-to-follow plan to quit. It helps you get ready, take action, and then live the rest of your life as a non-tobacco user. Phone numbers for Quit Line are: 1-800-QUIT-NOW (1-800-784-8669) / Spanish: 1-877-2NO-FUME (1-877-266-3863) / TTY for hearing impaired: 1-877-777-6534

HELP KEEP OUR PARKS CLEAN AND SAFE!

Through the City of Tualatin's Park Watch Program, park visitors and neighbors can take a more active role in protecting our parks and greenways. Please be alert to safety hazards, vandalism, and suspicious activity. If you observe any of these in parks or greenways, please report what you see to any park employee or call Police Dispatch. Report damage to the Parks Maintenance Division.
