Police Need Help Identifying Suspects in Theft Case

Tualatin Police are asking for the public's help in identifying the male and female shown in the attached picture.

The suspects were seen on December 8, 2019, at approximately 4:30 pm, committing a theft from a vehicle in the parking lot of the Bridgeport Village Shopping Center. The suspects were seen surveilling the victim as she made a bulk purchase of high dollar electronic items. The victim made several trips from the store to secure the purchased items in her vehicle. While the victim was back in the store, the male suspect broke the window to the victim's vehicle and stole several bags, valued at $115,000 or more. The female suspect served as the look out.

The suspects were seen leaving the scene in an older model silver Honda Odyssey with temp tags.

The female suspect is linked to an additional theft that took place at a Bridgeport Village electronics store on December 3, 2019 at 5:15pm where over $7000 in merchandise was stolen.

Anyone with any information is asked to contact Tualatin Police at 503-691-4800 and reference
