Tualatin Police Department

Established in 1987

Hi.

I'm Chief Barker.

This is your police department. I'm very proud to work alongside this team, keeping your city safe and delivering quality customer service.

How we work:

As a department we strive to take care of our community. Our members take pride in providing a service to our citizens, 24 hours a day, seven days a week, 365 days a year. We respond to calls for service, enforce criminal and traffic laws, and engage in positive ways with members of the community. It is our goal to serve our citizens and make them feel safe and proud of the partnership we share with them in making Tualatin a wonderful place to call home.

What principles do we follow?

Tualatin City Manager, Sherilyn Lombos, implemented seven principles to help guide our organization in how we do our jobs. Those seven principles consist of operating in a non-bureaucratic way, being a customer service expert, operating as a team, respecting those we come in contact with, empowering others, utilizing a one-city approach, and problem solving for a solution.

My commitment to you.

As the Chief of Police, I will continue to make our community and the safety of its citizens the utmost priority. I will strive to work with our department members and city leaders, providing unwavering customer service, to ensure that Tualatin remains a safe and enjoyable place to work and live.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Tualatin Police Department is dedicated to a safe community and excellence in customer service.

Department Values

We are a professional, progressive law enforcement family whose members are our greatest asset. We strive to improve livability for our citizens through public interaction, dedication, customer service, and partnerships with the community. Our family is proud to take care of yours.

*To give anything less than your best, is to sacrifice the gift.

We Love Tualatin!

A great place to live & work...

The City of Tualatin, population 27,000, is a dynamic, vibrant community, conveniently located just 12 miles south of Portland and 30 miles north of Salem, the state capital.

Situated at the intersection of Interstate 5 and 205, Tualatin is a short distance to adventures including skiing, snowboarding, sledding, wind-surfing, parasailing, hiking, and so much more.

A great place to play...

Tualatin's population is well-educated, diverse, and involved in community and school activities. There are excellent educational opportunities available to residents through the Tigard-Tualatin School District and numerous colleges and universities within easy commuting distance. In the most recent satisfaction survey, 84 percent of residents rated the overall quality of life in Tualatin as "excellent" or "good." INTERSECTION SAFETY CAMERAS

Intersection safety camera enforcement has shown to be a more effective and safe method of decreasing red light violations. Statistics have shown a decrease in red light violations and a significant decrease in injury crashes resulting from drivers running red lights when these cameras are installed.

The City of Tualatin began utilizing intersection safety cameras, also known as photo red light camera enforcement, in December 2010. The objective of the intersection safety cameras was to reduce traffic crashes at intersections, reduce the number of red light violations, change the behavior of drivers who travel through the City of Tualatin, reduce traffic congestion, and improve officer safety.

Tualatin currently has two operational safety camera intersections. They are located at SW Tualatin-Sherwood Road at Avery Street and at SW Lower Boones Ferry Road at Bridgeport Road/72nd Street.

When a violation occurs and a camera image is captured, a citation is not automatically generated.

An initial screening of the camera image is done by the intersection safety camera system company, Redflex Traffic Systems. If they feel a violation has potentially occurred, the image is sent to us for an officer to review to determine if an actual violation has occurred. Our officer makes the final decision on whether a citation is issued and mailed to the registered owner.

The Tualatin Police Department noticed an immediate decline in the number of crashes, red light violations, and number of citations issued at both intersections since the systems became functional. This decrease is an indication that the systems have had a positive effect on driver behavior and traffic safety in our city.

This event gives members of our city the opportunity to take an in-depth tour of our facility, learn the functions of the various divisions of the police department, take part in defensive tactics exercises and confrontational scenarios, learn emergency vehicle driving, and safely shoot firearms. It is our way of sharing a small percentage of what it's like to be an officer and what our department does every day to stay safe and protect others. This enables the participants to walk away with a far better understanding of what police do and why.

The Tualatin Police Experience has proven to be a very educational event. Each time all of the participants have provided valuable feedback. Many of them have said the experience will forever change the way they look at police related situations in the future, and they have greatly benefited from the training.

K-9 ZOIEY

Drug Detection Canine

In 2014, Zoey and Officer Barkley were deployed 44 times, for nine different agencies. These deployments led to 13 felony arrests, four misdemeanor arrests, 17 citations, and multiple administrative actions at Tualatin High School.

- Heroin 2.05 kg
- Marijuana 108.5 g

The first Tuesday of every August is National Night Out! This is the time where residents in neighborhoods throughout Tualatin and across the nation are asked to lock their doors, turn on outside lights and spend the evening outdoors with neighbors and police, giving crime and drugs a going away party. Many citizens host a variety of events such as block parties, cookouts, parades, contests, youth activities and small concerts. Tualatin police officers love to attend these events and mingle with the community. This is all in the spirit of getting to know neighbors and local police in order to prevent crime in the community and build alliances against criminal activity in the City of Tualatin. In 2014, Tualatin celebrated with over 20 events throughout the community.

NATIONAL PRESCRIPTION DRUG TAKE-BACK DAY

Got Drugs?

Tualatin Police Department partnered with the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) for National Prescription Drug Take-Back Day in the fall and spring. This gave community members an opportunity to bring in unwanted or expired prescription medications and over-the-counter medicines to dispose of them in a way that is safer for the environment. Tualatin Police Department collected close to 464 pounds of drugs in 2014.

Additionally, Tualatin Police Department offers a drop-box in the lobby, available during business hours, for citizens to dispose of medications safely and avoid the possibility of these substances falling into the wrong hands.

Car Seat Safety

It matters to us...

Tualatin Police Department employs officers and staff members who are certified child passenger safety technicians. They have each received specialized training in the installation of child passenger safety seats. The police department hosts three child passenger safety seat clinics per year, free of charge, in an effort to keep children safe and teach families the proper installation of their child's safety seat.

Statistics show that the majority of parents and caregivers install their child's car seat improperly. We hope to help!

SPECIAL OLYMPICS

FUNDRAISING EFFORTS

Tualatin Police Department members enjoy participating in fundraising efforts that benefit Oregon Special Olympics. Some took part in the Super Plunge, which is a version of the Polar Plunge. Super Plungers ran into the frigid waters of the Columbia River, once an hour, for 24 hours straight; all to raise money for Special Olympic programs. Others ran in the Law Enforcement Torch Run event alongside members from surrounding local police agencies.

BIRTHDAY PIZZA PARTIES

As part of their community outreach efforts, the Tualatin Police Department offers certificates to local schools for their annual auctions and fundraising events. These certificates are valued at approximately $250 and are good for a birthday pizza party with Tualatin officers at the Tualatin Police Department. These parties are a ton of fun for kids and officers alike and give kids an opportunity to see what it's like inside the police department, the holding facility and the inside of a police car.

TRAINING DAYS

Train Like Your Life Depends On It...

Tualatin officers take part in vital training throughout the year, to include emergency vehicle operations, motorcycle skills, firearms, and defensive tactics, among others. This training is what enables the officers to be the safest they can be while doing their jobs and protecting others. They train as though their life depends on it, because it does!

"I wanted to thank you for arresting me on my warrant. It's sad for me that it took going to jail to get clean/sober. So THANK YOU very much. It woke me up and since being released from jail, I am still clean."

"It was not a pleasant experience to receive a citation for driving a bit too fast. However, the officer made it as close to a pleasant experience as possible."

"I was speeding and not paying attention to what I was doing. I deserved the citation and was happy to pay it. You were true gentlemen and I appreciated that you didn't make me feel bad for what I was doing.

You were very professional. I never thought I would be thanking someone for giving me a ticket, but I wanted to say thank you. Thanks for treating our community members with dignity and respect. It's actions like yours that gives your department a good reputation."

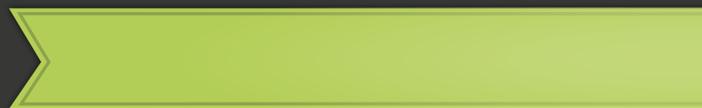

"I just wanted to take a minute of your time to let you know how impressed I have been with one of your officers. He is handling a theft case that occurred here out of my office.

Not only has he been very professional in his dealings with the case, he has kept me informed of the progress. I have very much appreciated his sincere concern and the seriousness that he placed on this crime. You certainly should be proud to have him as a member of your team!"

"I received a phone call from a school administrator. She told me officers came to her school to talk to a group of dads that volunteer as security for the school. She said you guys did an 'outstanding job'. She said the presentation was 'affirming' and was done 'professional'. You showed that you were dads talking to dads. You did not get them wound up, and she was very pleased with your presentation."

"I want to thank the officer who helped with an injured animal. He made it a positive impact and represented himself and the department well."

"I just wanted to let you know how much I appreciated the recent event where I could safely dispose of unused drugs. Your staff members that were at the collection site were very personable and answered questions I had regarding the destruction of the drugs and validated that my protected health information would be safeguarded. Please pass on my appreciation to your staff at the event for their professionalism and information provided."

"I watched one of your officers removing storm debris from the roadway. I appreciated seeing him clearing the roadway so cars could continue. I knew it wasn't his job, but liked seeing him helping out and keeping traffic flowing. Thanks for making a good impression and pitching in to keep the city moving!"

THE OATH...

I do solemnly swear and affirm that I will never betray my badge, my integrity, my character, or the public trust. I will always have the courage to hold myself and others accountable for our actions.

I will support the Constitution of the United States of America, the Constitution and Laws of the State of Oregon, the laws and ordinances of the City of Tualatin, and the Rules and Regulations of the Tualatin Police Department; and that I will, well and faithfully, discharge the duties of the office to which I have been appointed, in and for the City of Tualatin, according to law, and to the best of my ability.
