Burglary Suspect Arrested, Possibly Linked to Other Cases

On Sunday, April 19, 2015 at approximately 5:22pm, Tualatin officers arrested a man suspected in a Tualatin burglary. At the time of the arrest, the suspect was in possession of items stolen during a burglary incident that occurred earlier that day in the 21000 block of SW 110th Place, in Tualatin.

The suspect was identified as Christian Russell Crawford, 18 years of age, of Tualatin. Mr. Crawford was taken into custody and transported to the Washington County Jail, where he was lodged. Mr. Crawford faces first degree burglary and first degree theft charges. A booking photo can be obtained from the Washington County Jail.

Officers think Mr. Crawford might be connected to two other burglaries in the area and ask anyone with any information to contact the Tualatin Police Department, 503-691-4800.

This case is still under investigation. Nothing further at this time.
