Man Exposed Himself to Joggers in Tualatin

On Monday, December 14, 2015 at approximately 4:45pm, Tualatin Police responded to a report of a male exposing himself to joggers near the crosswalk located at SW Blake Street and SW Boones Ferry Road, in Tualatin.

Police learned that a group of four high school aged girls were jogging along the nearby path, when they witnessed a male in the bushes with his pants down and his shirt covering his head. No further description was provided.

Police searched the area, but did not find the suspect. Tualatin Police will continue to patrol the area and nearby trails. People in the area are asked to report any individuals acting suspiciously to the non-emergency dispatch number, 503-629-0111.

Tualatin Police recommend runners and walkers use well-lit trails or sidewalks during non-daylight hours and to travel in groups when possible.

This is an ongoing investigation. No further information at this time.
